SOCIAL DISTANCING: 2021_04 + 05

NOT A NEW CONCEPT

This month, Fred Kenney, Jr. takes a look at a scene from the 'PETE' play that correlates with our current navigation of (not so new) social distancing. We hope you enjoy more thoughts "behind the scenes"....

God is opening doors! Check out those dates below! SO, much to be thankful for, starting with YOU...

— WHO SOCIAL DISTANCED 1st? —

Pastor Fred Kenney, Jr. (a.k.a. Teddy) KICKS OFF 2021 PLAYS ON WORD TOUR performing 'PETE' at Lacey Christian Assembly Church on Resurrection Day, April 4th! Check out this scene from the woman who most likely did her own social distancing for 12 years!

SOCIAL DISTANCING: NOTHING NEW! - By Fred David Kenney, Jr.

While I was growing up, my father would sometimes recite the phrase "The more things change, the more they remain the same." As a child, I just assumed that he came up with that nugget of wisdom. To my surprise, I later realized that it was used by many people. In college, one of my professors asked a question and I responded with this phrase and she then responded in French, "plus ca change, plus c'est la meme chose" and then she attributed the phrase to the French writer Jean-Baptiste Alphonse Karr-1849. Now, I was fairly well versed in the Scripture at this point in my life, and I was thinking that Karr got his idea from Solomon's Ecclesiastes 1:9 - What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun. Is there anything of which one can say, "Look! This is something new"? It was here already, long ago; it was here before our time.

And again, Solomon wrote Ecclesiastes 3:15 - That which is, already has been; that which is to be, already has been; and God seeks what has been driven away.
